American Board of Family Practice Celebrates 25th Year as Nation's Second Largest Medical Specialty

April 16, 1994, to mark the 25th anniversary of the American Board of Family Practice (ABFP), a symposium was held in Lexington, Ky. The ABFP was formed in 1969, and its mission is to ensure that only qualified and experienced family physicians are certified. The ABFP is the second largest medical specialty board in the United States, with more than 150,000 active family physicians. The ABFP is dedicated to improving the quality of care for patients and to maintaining a high standard for the certification of its diplomates in geriatric medicine. Each year, a Certificate of Added Qualifications is awarded to physicians who satisfy the ABFP's rigorous training requirements. The ABFP is headquartered in Lexington, Ky.
